

Srečko Jamnišek

Personal Details

Date of Birth: 8th of February, 1931

Home Country: Slovenia

AIIESEC Records

Founder of LC Beograd and AIIESEC in the Former Socialist Republic of Yugoslavia

NCP of AIIESEC in the Former Socialist Republic of Yugoslavia 1952-1954

Traineeship in the UK, 1954

Honorary member of AIIESEC Alumni Club in Slovenia

Achievements

In the early 50's establishing an exchange program in a communist country with Western Europe and other countries. In 1953 he realized approximately 100 exchanges.

Srečko Jamnišek worked as the Export Director in a 12,000 employee steel company in Zenica, Bosnia in 1955-1959, after which he moved to Emo Celje, Slovenia. In his time as the Export Director and Commercial Director of Emo Celje (1959-1967) the company started taking AIIESEC trainees.

He extended the market of EMO Celje to Germany, Iran, Kuwait, Syria, Nigeria, Lebanon, Jamaica, Cote D'Ivoire, Ghana.

He worked as the General Manager of the Intertrade subsidiary in Prague and later in Slovenia as the Intertrade's General Manager for Europe.

In 1979 he started leading the Rep office of Ljubljanska banka in Germany, in 1982 he became the CEO of Ljubljanska Banka Združena Banka and in 1986 the General Manager of a Rep office of Ljubljanska banka in Germany again.

In 1982 he wrote a proposal to government about a law on joint ventures of foreign investors in Yugoslavia. In 1991 he wrote another proposal to government of Slovenia concerning a law about privatization of Slovenian enterprises.

Several times he has organized charity events to support clinics in Ljubljana.