GLOBAL AIESEC

CONTRIBUTION AWARD

AUGUST 2008

Brazil, 2008.

There can be no comparison to the contribution that Tarek Mansour has given to AIESEC in Egypt. Through the good times and the bad, he has always been an active supporter to the organization and has always been pushing for a stronger relationship.

Never been an AIESEC member himself, Tarek Mansour has been contributing to AIESEC in Egypt for more than a decade now. Despite his busy agenda and long list of responsibilities his advanced career require, Tarek has always found time to support and personally mentor the leadership of AIESEC in Egypt. He has been active promoter of a strong partner relationship between AIESEC and PricewaterhouseCoopers which has resulted in a long-lasting financial and exchange partnership. He has also been instrumental in securing partnerships throughout the

“A man of Tarek Mansour's commitment to going that extra mile in supporting an organization he was never a member of, is a true inspiration with the faith he has given AIESEC across these past 11 years.”

Middle East and North Africa AIESEC network, always following up on contacts and trying to start up or increase the interest in a partnership. Tarek has been chairing the Supervisory Group of AIESEC Egypt and is an active member in the Global Council of Board Chairs.

Highly successful individual, Tarek is a role-model for each and every member of the association in Egypt. After finishing his education as a

Qualified Public Accountant in the USA, he returned back to Egypt to start a lasting career with PricewaterhouseCoopers, where he assumed the Country

Senior Partner role in 2000. Currently he is a board member of PricewaterhouseCoopers Middle East with a number of regional responsibilities.

Tarek has also been involved in a number of professional societies and associations – being a board member of the National Investment Bank, the Egyptian Society of Accountants and Auditors, the Egyptian Finance Executives Foundation and having served on the board of the Egyptian Insurance Supervisory Authority (EISA) until end of 2007 to name a few.
